

During the quarterly regulatory coordination meeting held on March 20, 2024, several updates were discussed regarding new transparency requirements.

The meeting was chaired by Maria Stone from Apex Governance Consulting and included representatives from multiple partner organizations. Participants joined both in person in Brussels and remotely.

Maria later shared the draft report through email at maria.stone@apex-example.com. She also mentioned that follow-up questions could be directed to her team via their public website <https://apex-example.com/resources>.
