

Priya Nair from Horizon Compliance Services prepared a briefing document summarizing upcoming audit requirements.

The document explains that financial institutions must maintain clear records of system access and transaction histories.

During testing procedures, one simulated access event originated from IP address 198.51.100.23. The example was included only for demonstration purposes.

Nair plans to circulate the full report to stakeholders later this week.